Taking advantage of the Diamond Jubilee long weekend, we have a spectacular ten day tour of approx. 1400 miles round trip, to the stunning Lake Geneva, Lake Como and Lake Constance with a circular alpine route, culminating in the famous Stelvio pass. We stay at 3 and 4 star hotels, and dinner is included most evenings.

On Day 1 we take the Dover Calais ferry and drive to an overnight stop in Troyes (250 miles) with an evening group meal.

On Day 2 the real scenery starts as we cross the Jura mountains on route to the hotel where we stay for two nights Lake Geneva (245 miles) Day 3 is a free day on the lake, visit to the old town of Lausanne (9 miles) and Montreux (10 miles), home of the famous film festival.

On Day 4 we head over the Simplon pass and skirt the shores of Lake Maggiore, finally arriving at our hotel on Lake Como (approx 200 miles) staying for three nights.

Days 5 experience one of the highlights of our tour – the Stelvio Pass. The highest paved mountain pass in the Eastern Alps, it is a truly amazing drive through stunning scenery, with 48 hairpin bends! We recommend a circular route, maybe taking in St Moritz as well, finishing back at the hotel on Lake Como (approx 230 miles).

Day 6 is a free day on Lake Como. On Day 7 drive to the hotel at Lake Constance for two nights via the mountain principality of Liechtenstein (150 miles).

Day 8 is a free day, take a boat trip across the lake to visit the lovely town of Lindau, or visit the Zeppelin museum at Friedrichshafen.

On Day 9 it's time to head towards home, driving the 250 miles to the hotel at Metz. Day 10 takes us back to Calais for the ferry home.
