THE STELVIO TOUR 2010

Fri July 9 – Sun July 18

10 days/9 nights - Ferry, Hotels and Evening Meals included

£899 per person

Price based on two persons per car sharing

A spectacular ten day tour (approx. 1,630 miles), with 2 rest days, over some of the most famous passes in the Alps - Stelvio, San Bernardino, Splugen, Brenner, St. Gotthard, to name but a few – finishing with the Schlumpf motor museum in Mulhouse and then a stopover in Champagne, staying at 3 and 4 star hotels, dinner included most evenings.

On Day 1 we cross the channel and drive to our overnight stop in Southern Belgium (245 miles). On the second day we step up the pace and try out the German Autobahns on the way to our hotel in Southern Germany (290 miles).

On Day 3 the mountains begin! Drive across Austria through stunning scenery to our hotel in the beautiful Brenner Valley, a few miles south of Innsbruck (180 miles).

Day 4 heralds the highlight of our tour – the Stelvio Pass. The highest paved mountain pass in the Eastern Alps, it is a truly amazing drive through stunning scenery, with 48 hairpin bends! We arrive at the famous town of St. Moritz (170 miles) where we stay for 2 nights. Dinner is included this evening

Day 5 Rest day at leisure in St. Moritz. You are free to choose your own restaurant this evening.

Day 6 takes us over the San Bernardino and St. Gotthard passes to our hotel near Lake Luzern (198 miles), where we spend 2 nights. Dinner is included this evening.

Day 7. Rest day. The beautiful lakeside city of Luzern is a 'must see', with its famous 14th century Chapel Bridge, old buildings and pedestrianised streets. Take a boat trip on the lake or ride the cable car to the top of Mount Pilatus for a fabulous view. Free evening to choose your own restaurant.

Day 8 is a short drive to Alsace, via the Schlumpf Motor Museum in Mulhouse (100 miles). Alternatively you can explore some of the lovely scenery of the Black Forest (125 miles). Day 9 takes us through the Champagne region to Laon (270 miles) and on the last day, we drive the 142 miles to the ferry home.
