A weekend tour to join the Classic Car Festival in Brugge, organised by classic car enthusiasts in Belgium, who will join us for the tour on Sunday. On the Sunday afternoon the town square in Brugge will be closed for classic car parking only.

We drive the 75 miles to Brugge, via a scenic route, to our four star hotel. A buffet dinner is included on the Saturday evening.

On Sunday morning we drive the 25 miles to Roeselare for the start of the event. We joined by a number of Belgian classic cars, and we assemble in the town square ready for the start of the scenic tour. Following our tulip route book, we drive through picturesque towns and villages, finishing in Brugge, where the cars will be parked on display. Once parked, you are free to explore this beautiful city.
