2011 is the 20th Anniversary of The Circuit Historique de Laon and will be dedicated to “British Classic Cars”. The town hosts a classic car parade for over 400 classic and vintage cars from all over Europe, together with over 150 classics from the UK. Totally non competitive, with no racing, it is a very relaxed weekend.

On Saturday morning you sign on for the scenic regional tour, collect your rally plate and route book, and off you go to explore the local countryside. On Sunday morning, all the cars assemble in Laon old town. The streets are closed to traffic, except for the cars participating in the street circuit, which is a mix of high street driving, hill climbs and hairpin bends – strictly no racing or speeding – and the whole town is amass with spectators.

A choice of Laon hotels (plus the Hotel du Lac de l’Ailette, which is located overlooking a lake, 8 miles out of the town) can be reserved for Sat – Mon(2 nights) or Fri – Mon (3 nights), or longer.

Laon is approximately 140 miles from the channel ports.

The 2-night tour will require an early ferry on Saturday morning, in order to arrive in time for the official start and signing on for Saturday’s regional tour. The 3-night tour includes a Friday channel crossing, and a more leisurely drive, staying in Laon on Friday evening.
