The bi-annual Grand Prix de Pau Historique takes place in the town of Pau, situated in the South West corner of France. Pau has a motoring history dating back to the first Formula One Grand Prix, staged in the town in 1948, and the famous street circuit remains unchanged, with its incredible backdrop of the Pyrenees mountains.

Practice is throughout Saturday and the racing starts on Sunday at 8 am, going through until about 6 pm. Grandstand and Paddock tickets for both days are included in our package.

Departing on the Dover-Calais ferry on Thursday at about 9.30 you drive to our modern hotel (with parking) in the centre of Le Mans (260 miles). On Friday you continue on to Pau (370 miles) where we have reserved a modern hotel in the centre of town (with parking) for 3 nights. On Monday drive the 350 miles to our hotel near Le Mans and then back to Calais for the ferry home on Tuesday.
